B. APPROX 7888

~~EMANUEL CELLER (D-N. Y.)~~ - A lawyer and Chairman of the House Judiciary Committee, he has served in Congress since 1923. He is generally considered a Liberal. Our dealings with him through the years have been friendly. He is aged 84 and was defeated in the recent Democratic primary in New York, but he has challenged the results of this primary in the courts. Since he has the nomination of the Liberal Party in New York, his name will appear on the ballot in November regardless of the outcome of his challenge.

~~PETER W. RODINO, JR. (D- N. J.)~~ - A lawyer of Italian extraction, he has served in Congress since 1949. Our relations with him have been generally friendly. There have been from time to time allegations that he has associations with members of the underworld. He was one of the first enlisted men commissioned overseas during World War II and was discharged as a captain. He led a drive against the rise of communism during the Italian elections in 1948 and holds a number of Italian decorations. If reelected himself in November and should Celler be defeated, Rodino will become Chairman of this Committee next year unless the Republicans win control of the House.

~~HAROLD D. DONOHUE (D-MASS.)~~ - A lawyer, he has served in Congress since 1947. He was a lieutenant commander in the Navy during World War II. Our dealings with him through the years have been on a very friendly basis.

~~JACK BROOKS (D-TEX.)~~ - A lawyer and farmer, Brooks has served in Congress since 1953. He was in the Marine Corps during World War II. Our dealings with Brooks have been guarded since he has been unfriendly at times, and he and members of his staff have attempted to involve the FBI from time to time in matters not within our jurisdiction.

~~JOHN DOWDY (D-TEX.)~~ - Dowdy is a lawyer who has been in Congress since 1952. He was convicted in Federal court in December, 1971, on bribery, conspiracy, and perjury charges and received a fine and prison sentence which he has appealed. He currently is not participating in Committee deliberations or House votes. He did not seek reelection.

ROBERT W. KASTENMEIER (D-WIS.) - A lawyer, he has served in Congress since 1959. During his early years in the Congress our dealings with him were friendly, but he later became somewhat critical of the FBI with respect to civil rights matters. In 1967 he was one of six Congressmen who met with Attorney General Ramsey Clark and, in effect, accused the FBI of having leaked information alleging they were affiliated with various leftist groups. They also wanted to know if the FBI maintained files on each Congressman. The Attorney General told them the FBI has files on Congressmen only where they were the subject of legitimate investigations and they were assured the FBI had not leaked the information concerning them. He was one of 20 Congressmen who urged the President in 1968 to veto the Omnibus Crime Control Bill, saying that wiretapping and confession provisions in the bill would lead to a police state.

W. DONLON EDWARDS (D-CALIF.) - A lawyer, he has served in Congress since 1963. He was an Agent in the FBI from December, 1940, to December, 1941. He frequently has been highly critical of the FBI, often without regard to facts, and he has been termed one of the most hostile Members of Congress toward the FBI. He was the spokesman of the group of Congressmen who met with AG Clark in 1967. Recently, he had eliminated from the FBI appropriations bill language which would allow a continuation of our program to furnish information to banking institutions and state and local government agencies under the non-Federal applicant fingerprint program. Recently, he telephoned Mr. Gray's office and indicated a willingness to work with us on this matter to solve this problem. He was one of 20 Congressmen who urged the President in 1968 to veto the Omnibus Crime Control Bill, saying that wiretapping and confession provisions in the bill would lead to a police state.

WILLIAM L. HUNGATE (D-MO.) - A lawyer and former prosecuting attorney, he has served in Congress since 1965. Our dealings with him have been very friendly.

JOHN CONYERS, JR. (D-MICH.) - A lawyer, he has served in Congress since 1965. He is a member of the Black Caucus. He has been identified with numerous left wing groups and with militant black groups such as the Black Panther Party and the Republic of New Africa. Conyers was not present with the six Congressmen who met with AG Clark in 1967 when the allegation was made that the FBI had leaked information concerning them; however, Clark stated Conyers had planned to be at the meeting but could not attend. Conyers was one of 20 Congressmen who urged the President in 1968 to veto the Omnibus Crime Control Bill, saying that wiretapping and confession provisions in the bill would lead to a police state.

~~ANDREW JACOBS, JR. (D-IND.)~~ - A lawyer, he has served in Congress since 1965. He is a former deputy sheriff, and our dealings with him have been generally friendly. He has the reputation of being somewhat of a maverick in Congress.

~~JOSHUA EILBERG (D-PA.)~~ - A lawyer, he has served in Congress since 1967. Our dealings with him have been generally friendly, although he did cosponsor in April, 1971, House Resolution 410 introduced by Congresswoman Bella Abzug calling for an investigation of the FBI.

~~WILLIAM FITTS RYAN (D-N. Y.)~~ - A lawyer, he has served in Congress since 1961. He is considered very liberal and has been identified with various left wing causes and participated in a number of peace demonstrations. He was one of the six Congressmen who met with AG Clark in 1967 alleging a leak of information concerning them by the FBI. Ryan generally has been hostile toward the FBI. In May, 1972, he introduced a bill to impeach the President. He urged veto of 1968 crime bill.

~~JEROME R. WALDIE (D-CALIF.)~~ - A lawyer, he has served in Congress since 1966. Our dealings with him were friendly until 1969 when he became highly critical after Mr. Hoover declined an invitation for an FBI representative to testify before the House Select Committee on Crime, of which Waldie is a member. Since that time Waldie has been rather hostile toward the FBI. He reportedly has great ambitions to be Governor of California and is said to be already planning his campaign for that office.

~~WALTER W. FLOWERS, JR. (D-ALA.)~~ - A lawyer, he has served in Congress since 1969. We have had limited friendly contacts with him.

~~JAMES R. MANN (D-S. C.)~~ - A lawyer and former prosecuting attorney, he has served in Congress since 1969. We have had limited friendly contacts with him.

He was reportedly involved with the planting of a microphone in a jury room of a Federal District Court in Wichita, Kansas, in 1954 in connection with a project of the University of Chicago. He has been critical of the FBI since being elected to Congress and was particularly critical with respect to our alleged surveillance and wiretapping of the late Martin Luther King.

EDWARD HUTCHINSON (R-MICH.) - A lawyer, he has served in Congress since 1963. Our contacts with him have been friendly though limited.

ROBERT MC CLORY (R-ILL.) - A lawyer, he has served in Congress since 1963. We have had a number of contacts with him, most of which have been on a very friendly basis. We did have some conflict with him in 1967-68 over his desire to create a National Institute of Law Enforcement and Criminal Justice which would compete with FBI training programs. He and another member of the Committee at that time as well as some staff personnel were given a thorough briefing on our training programs and a tour of our facilities at Quantico in March, 1968. In June, 1972, McClory wrote Mr. Gray seeking his views on McClory's bill calling for the registration of firearms.
